1. On 26 June 1948 the German Administration of Interior forwarded to SMA, Karlshorst for approval a proposal to enforce the Currency Reform Law. [REDACTED]
 2. The draft of the proposal, acceptance of which is a foregone conclusion, subordinates the Berlin Police President to the German Administration of Interior and places him on equal footing with the police chiefs of the Soviet Zone Länder.
 3. The text of the proposed regulations considers Berlin a part of the Soviet Zone and makes no reference to sector boundaries.
- 25X1A [REDACTED] Comment: The above information is the first documentary proof of Soviet intentions to incorporate Berlin into the Soviet Zone police setup which was previously forecast.)
